MAIN CATALOGUE

Dear Partners and Friends of the World of Toynamics,

In 2022, we are entering our third year as a young company. In these unusual times, we have been able to develop into a strong partner for retailers and for our brands. Thanks to you and the whole Toynamics team, we were able to react efficiently and flexibly to the most varied of market situations and were successful in finding solutions together.

With the Hape group behind us and with our continuous drive for improvement, we stand by you as a distributor, manufacturer and service provider – reliable and full of motivation as a company working on a long-term, sustainable basis.

To continue to be as prepared as we can for immediate challenges, we will be investing specifically in the digitalisation of our company. We will surprise you with new technologies as well as exciting tools for retail. We are certain that digitalisation and innovative products are the keys to success. In doing so, we aspire to sustainably establish the Toynamics brands and to present their unique products in the best possible way. Online as well as offline, our marketing generates emotional, lively communication with our end customers both large and small – to ensure the best possible sales figures for all of our customers.

Let's start the year 2022 together with an innovative spirit and the courage to find new ways of thinking.

Stay healthy

Let's go!

LOVE PLAY LEARN

Hape is a world-leading educational toy brand. We endeavour to foster children's curiosity through play and prepare them for a better world ahead." Hape is the central brand in the Toynamics Europe GmbH portfolio.

Hape is one of the world's largest manufacturer of toys made from renewable raw materials: Alongside wood, for example, we also use Fasal, rice and bamboo for the production of innovative and environmentally-friendly toys. All Hape products fulfil or exceed the strictest international quality and safety standards.

Behind our innovative design and meticulous quality assurance lie the brand's unique philosophy and guiding principle: Love Play Learn.

Here the word love represents the love shared between children and their families. At Hape, play is seen as a basic requirement for all children – regardless of their culture or heritage. It supports the child's holistic development and promotes a deeper understanding of everyday things. The important experience of success and failure is viewed as part of play, meaning that learning occurs as a natural result of love and play.

Bath toys

The main goal of our bath toys is to make bathing as pleasant and exciting as possible for our little water babies. Alongside watering cans and bath pumps, which promote hand-eye coordination, bathtime animals and sea creatures invite children to enjoy role-playing games. In this way, children not only learn about the element of water and its properties, they also discover the animals that make water their home at the same time.

Age-appropriate toys can have an extremely positive influence on babies' development. With the wide range of baby toys from Hape, parents always have the right product on hand to capture the attention and satisfy the inquisitiveness of their little ones as they discover the world.

For example, rattles stimulate their sense of hearing, while grasping toys motivate them to touch and funny wobbling toys teach even the tiniest of tots about the relationship between cause and effect.

Music for pre-schoolers

Ein Jahr vor der Einschulung ist der ideale Zeitpunkt, Kinder an komplexere Musikinstrumente heranzuführen. Diese fordern nicht nur ein hohes Maß an Konzentration, sondern schulen auch die Motorik. Unsere Miniaturinstrumente inspirieren zum Musizieren und erzeugen ein Verständnis für den Zusammenhang von Musik, Rhythmus und Bewegung. Dies fördert die sinnliche Wahrnehmung – und damit letztendlich auch die Persönlichkeitsentwicklung.

Toys for toddlers

Marble runs, stackers, shape sorters and, above all, building blocks promote coordination, dexterity and logical thinking in toddlers. Playtime which involves toddlers having to find the right hole for different pegs/blocks, help build their fine motor skills, as well as their ability to assess geometric shapes just by looking at them. Towers, houses and other structures require a steady hand and let mini master builders' imaginations run wild.

Educational toys & motor skills

Children learn through play – and that applies to their motor skills too.

Our magnetic mazes and motor skills cubes are designed to do just that. They are great fun to play with while also promoting different movement processes and thinking patterns at the same time. Whether its little marbles finding their way through a maze or balls that are pushed back and forth on colourful metal rods – our educational toys support motor development and demonstrate the connection between cause and effect.

Puzzles

Puzzles and tile-based games promote age-appropriate retentive memory, reasoning, coordination and dexterity. In doing so, our well thought-out level structure makes it clear at first glance which age group the respective puzzle is suitable for. Popular designs from the animal kingdom, street traffic as well as numbers and letters awaken children's curiosity and encourage them to play. Alongside logical thinking, they also put children's fine motor skills to the test.

Train sets for toddlers

Even the tiniest of tots love to experiment with simple construction. Our wooden train set range provides them with everything they need. Simple plug-in systems, bright pieces and xylophone tracks stimulate children's senses of sight, touch and hearing. With challenges such as built-in mazes or puzzles appeal to the logical thinking skills of our little railway children. In addition, children learn about the different shapes in a very playful way as they incorporate them into their railway. Compatible with track systems from many different manufacturers.

Children love building and constructing things. Our train sets give them plenty of opportunity to do so. Our high-quality wooden sets spark their imagination and encourage our little railway children to try something new.

Extra features such as bridges, recording functions or tunnels provide an authentic play experience. Wind-up or solar-powered carriages as well as remote-control trains can be sent out on the tracks to teach children about different types of motors.

Compatible with track systems from different manufacturers.

With role-playing games, children can expand their social skills and practise communication. Our range of role-playing games for pre-schoolers encourages them to try out careers and discover unfamiliar backdrops such as space stations. Children can explore helicopters, fire engines and diggers, which will promote powers of imagination while also familiarising children with possible career options for the first time. During role-playing games, children are introduced to the world of adults and learn about tasks as well as responsibility. This allows them to express any fears and wishes which would otherwise remain hidden if it wasn't for the role-playing game.

Arts & Crafts

Every great artist once started small. Our magnetic boards, painting sets and easels encourage children to get creative themselves. In this way, they have a variety of materials at their disposal which they can use to give free rein to their imagination. Beyond getting creative, painting also serves to express emotions and perception in children – especially if their language skills are not yet well developed.

Junior Inventor

Children naturally have fun when making discoveries and experimenting. Our Junior Inventor range of toys offers everything little explorers from the age of four and up need in order to engage with the physical world around them in an experimental way. Kits of different sizes introduce children to mechanical, magnetic and optical phenomena and relationships that they can discover through play. In doing so, they can gain their first insights into the exciting world of physics.

Quadrilla

The Quadrilla marble run is a sophisticated wooden toy that promotes creativity through its modular system. Because it can be constructed in a number of different ways, playing with it is great fun even for older children and it promotes logical thinking in the process. As children pay close attention to the marbles, they are fine tuning their motor skills, visual perception and their hand-eye coordination. Furthermore, our construction toys encourage imaginative building, promote dexterity and introduce children to the world of combinatorics.

Kitchens for toddlers

There are all kinds of things to discover in the kitchen, even for the tiniest tots: What's happening there on the stove? What ingredients do you need to make pasta and tomato sauce – and what does each one taste like on its own? And things get even more exciting when our miniature chefs step up to the hot plate themselves. The Hape children's kitchen makes it possible with its safe design, which has no sharp corners or risk of trapping fingers.

Kitchen & Accessories

Children have lots of fun trying out and imitating things from the world of adults.

Our children's kitchens are the perfect toy for this. Role-playing games not only spark children's imaginations but also promote the development of language and motor skills. It's quite common for children to develop a sense of caring for others when "cooking for" their friends and family.

Doll's houses are not only popular with girls – boys also have lots of fun acting out familiar family scenarios with the help of figurines. Playing with doll's houses promotes the development of language skills, unleashes children's creativity and teaches them spatial awareness. Our doll's houses with coordinating dolls and furnishings let children design and decorate their own dream house for their doll family.

Games & impulse items

Children are curious and love learning new things. With our Creative Construction Kits, we promote their logical thinking and dexterity. Bamboo canes and flexible connectors allow them to assemble constructions quickly, be it from their own imagination or by following the building instructions. Stackers and domino games train their dexterity. Our varied range encourages them to discover their own abilities.

Outdoor Toys

Playing in the great outdoors is the ideal way to encourage children's development. This is because activities involving wood, water and earth stimulate their senses and sharpen their own perception. Hardly any other environment allows them to be as creative as when they are out in the open air. With our outdoor toys, spending time in the fresh air becomes a fun adventure, where their knowledge is expanded along the way.

The image features five Kruselings dolls standing in a vibrant, magical landscape. From left to right: a doll with green wings and a pink and green dress; a doll with pink wings and a pink dress holding a wand; a doll with black hair and a brown dress holding a telescope; a doll with purple wings and a purple dress; and a doll with red wings and a red dress. The background shows a large green tree, a path, and a sky with a star and a crescent moon. The word 'Kruselings' is written in a golden, ornate font in the top right corner.

Kruselings

TIME FOR SOME NEW HEROINES

For over a century, Käthe Kruse® has been dedicated to the design, development and manufacture of high-quality hand-made dolls. The well-known German doll artist Sonja Hartmann has developed and created brand new heroines for this traditional brand in the form of the Kruselings, whose adventures are played out in a series of books by the popular children's author Boris Pfeiffer. With their classic and modern fairytale motifs, the stories awaken children's creativity and spark their imaginations.

The Kruselings are Luna, Vera, Sofia, Joy and Chloe. These five adventurous young girls come from all corners of the world and are the guardians of dreamland: Wishes come true here – and fears are made real so they can be overcome with the courage and self-confidence of the five heroines, expressed in creative stories.

The Kruselings collection comprises Deluxe and Casual sets as well as children's costumes for the individual characters, doll's houses, accessory sets and, of course, books.

Käthe Kruse

Loyal companions for our whole lives

“The hand follows the heart. Only the hand can make what goes back through the hand to the heart.” – Käthe Kruse

According to the company founder's philosophy, the Käthe Kruse Company has produced lovingly hand-made dolls and toys for children for over 100 years. In doing so, this traditional brand stands for trust, quality and safety now, just as it did back then.

Käthe Kruse manufactures products that come from the heart and bring joy throughout a child's life. In doing so, they promote creativity and imagination as well as language and communication.

Their baby toys stimulate the senses and encourage them to try things out: The products are soft and cuddly & convey a feeling of safety and the warmth of home. In doing so, they fulfil the premium quality standards and passion which Käthe Kruse herself had for each toy.

The feeling conveyed by the world of Käthe Kruse is warm, soft, safe and creative.

It exudes love and trust because the dolls and toys are intended to be loved for decades to come. They are companions, friends, confidants and comforters – throughout childhoods and across generations.

BABY

Little hands love to reach out for soft fabrics – the towel dolls and grabbing toys from Käthe Kruse fulfil precisely this need. No matter if it's an animal or a doll: There's a new best friend here for everyone.
